

Second, Plaintiff does not need the Court's permission to refile any allegedly dismissed claims.

Finally, the Court notes Plaintiff may be referring to two additional cases that he has filed in this Court. But neither appear to fit the request made in Plaintiff's motion in this case. In Campbell v. Felicia, Plaintiff's claims were dismissed because they were vague, and he sought relief not available in this Court. Campbell v. Felicia, No. 4:23-cv-00076-CDL-MSH (M.D. Ga.) (R&R, Sept. 29, 2023, ECF No. 13 (adopted by Order, Jan. 4, 2024, ECF No. 16)). And, in Campbell v. Muscogee County Jail, while the Court ordered Plaintiff to show cause for his failure to timely return a proper motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, the Court ultimately allowed his claims to proceed against Defendant Felicia Moore, but recommended dismissal of his medical claims related to the loss of his eye, among others. Campbell v. Muscogee County Jail, No. 4:23-cv-00178-CDL-MSH (M.D. Ga.) (Order & R. 8-9, Feb. 21, 2024, ECF No. 11). But that recommendation was not issued until February 21, 2024.

Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion (ECF No. 29) is DENIED. Plaintiff is advised to file his motions in the appropriate case.

SO ORDERED, this 29th day of February, 2024.
